

“Showboat” at the North Shore Music Hall

Oct 08, 2008

Wed. Matinee $99

"Show Boat" was a testament to the courage of composer Jerome Kern, lyricist and librettist Oscar Hammerstein II, and producer Florenz Ziegfeld. In an era of "willful nonsense," they attempted a complicated musical narrative epic with challenging themes and many storylines. This critically acclaimed American masterpiece was revived on Broadway in 1994 and featured Tony® Award-winning choreography by Susan Stroman. Now you can experience this powerful new version on the North Shore Music Theater stage. You'll board the Cotton Blossom, a show boat steaming up and down the Mississippi in the 1890s, where dashing men and beautiful women go to be entertained, forget their troubles, and fall in love. But under the surface there's a darker side of gambling, racial tension, and heartache. The unforgettable score includes "Only Make Believe," "Ol' Man River," and "Can't Help Lovin' Dat Man."

Book & Lyrics by Oscar Hammerstein II.

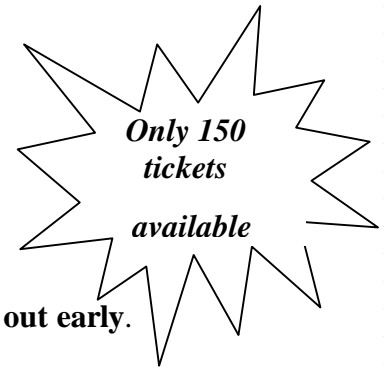

Music by Jerome Kern.
